

Activities

Wednesday, July 4th

10:00 am - 2:00 pm

Parade

Participate in the world famous Aspen Fourth of July Parade. We will be walking our GIANT RAINBOW FLAG in the parade. All are welcome to participate, the flag is 140 feet long and 15 feet wide so we'll need plenty of hands to help. We will meet at the staging area at approximately 10:00 am. All 5 lanes of Main Street, from Aspen Street to 2nd Street, will be closed to all traffic & designated for parade staging only. You can count on the parade lasting until about 2:00 pm.

5:00 pm - 9:00 pm

Snowmass Rodeo

Celebrating its 45th season in 2018, the Snowmass Rodeo is the longest running rodeo in Colorado. This authentic western event takes place every Wednesday evening as the sun sets behind the surrounding mountain peaks. Visitors can check out exciting competitions like saddle bronc and bull riding, team roping, and barrel racing. Children can participate in the Calf Scramble and Mutton Bustin' (age and weight restrictions apply).

Come early and enjoy a BBQ dinner and cocktails from the full bar or stroll around vendor booths and watch live entertainment such as roping demonstrations. After the rodeo, a campfire sing-a-long and marshmallow roast completes a perfect Colorado evening. It's Western Wednesdays in Snowmass, rain or shine!

Gates open at 5:00 P.M. for family activities, BBQ, cash bar & shopping. The Rodeo takes place from 7:00 P.M. – 9:00 P.M. FREE parking is available.

Adults: General Admission $20 / VIP $25 - Youth (11-15): General Admission $10 / VIP $15 - FREE for children under 11

7:30 pm - 9:30 pm

ORRRR! For some bluegrass fun in an amazing venue.

Keller Williams' PettyGrass ft. The HillBenders at the Belly UP!

Keller Williams has announced a new Tom Petty-inspired project titled Keller Williams' PettyGrass, which finds him performing select covers in a rollicking bluegrass style alongside eclectic bluegrass quintet The Hillbenders. The project began in 2015, when Williams put together a set of Petty covers for his annual hometown S.P.C.A. benefit, recording the rehearsals as voice memos on his phone. After Tom Petty's untimely passing earlier this year, Williams and his longtime collaborator Jeff Covert enhanced these recordings and posted them as a tribute to the legend's legacy and inspiration. In 2018, Keller Williams will bring his PettyGrass project out on the road for the first time. These special performances will serve as a way to pay homage to a musical icon, while bringing a new perspective to his time-honored songs. Stream the PettyGrass voice memos here: <https://soundcloud.com/kellerwilliams/sets/pettygrass>

"There is nothing like a room full of people singing along to the same song. In 2015, I put together a set of Tom Petty songs to be done in bluegrass at a benefit for my local S.P.C.A. I had so much fun putting the project together; it brought a wave of joy over me singing these songs. With his untimely passing, these songs have been pushed to the forefront of my mind and it seems like as good a time as any to celebrate, publicly, the music of Tom Petty. Luckily, The Hillbenders share my passion for this music and it just so happens that they are kick ass pickers who have amazing attention to detail. These Petty songs lend themselves quite easily to bluegrass and by the end of the night, the audience will more than likely be singing in harmony." – Keller Williams
